

Topic 6: What we Believe About Life Everlasting

D. Read what the Apostle’s Creed Says about the life everlasting.

“I believe in...the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.”

E. Discussion

This part of the Apostle’s Creed is probably the most challenging for us to understand. If we know about Jesus’ death and resurrection, we might think that this statement is about our belief that those events took place. And this would be consistent with the previous statement of the forgiveness of sins. But believing in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting goes deeper than that, and will make you look deeper at your beliefs about what happens next. Meaning.... what happens when we die? What is life everlasting?

So, what do you think happens?

Have you experienced death? Talk about those events.

Especially when we deal with unexpected death or a long-term illness, we have a promise of a resurrected body that is healed and new. What do you think that means?

Since this is something none of us have experienced first hand we are only able to go on the promises Jesus gives us. Take a look at the scripture passages, talk about the promises we hear in scripture. Now talk with each other about what you hope for.

F. Write your ideas about “what I believe about life everlasting”. Now look at your thoughts about forgiveness and life everlasting and write, “what I believe about salvation.
